

“Peter, Paul and Mary Remembered”
‘The midwest’s FIRST and only tribute band’

St. Andrews Presbyterian Church “Concert on the Hill”
Thursday, September 6, 2018, 7:00 P.M.

Benefit: BACN and Benzie Senior Resources

Reviving many of the beloved hits such as “Puff the Magic Dragon, If I Had a Hammer, Blowin’ in the Wind,” and a host of others, these seasoned musicians dish up a smooth blend of authentic harmonies and 1960’s nostalgia. This high-energy show combines humor, class-A musicianship, costumes, show biz and audience participation for an unforgettable concert. In early 2010 the group met with Peter Yarrow and Noel Paul Stookey and asked their blessing on the newly formed tribute band. Carrying on Peter, Paul & Mary’s tradition of promoting peace, love, justice, tolerance and social action, PPMR has helped raise over $120,000 for humanitarian causes since its beginning.

Lawrence “Doc” Probes is a graduate of Interlochen Center for the Arts where he attended both the Camp and Academy. As a bassoonist, he earned his way through medical school playing in symphonies. He plays guitar, mandolin, bouzouki, piano, concertina, and pennywhistle. He has performed throughout Michigan for more than 30 years and has played in Irish traditional music ‘sessions’ across the country. When not playing music, he serves as a Psychiatrist in Traverse City.

Donna Wilson Probes is the founder of the Grand River Folk Arts Society. She has performed on stages across the state of Michigan in eight ensembles. She plays guitar, mountain dulcimer, bouzouki, autoharp and bodhran. Over the course of her musical career, she has taught music lessons, written and produced radio jingles, been an impresario, and done extensive studio singing. She holds a B.A. in music and an M.B.A. She served as Director of Special Events for Interlochen Center for the Arts.

Doc and Donna perform over 220 engagements per year in their various ensembles. Their premier group, Peter, Paul & Mary Remembered is gaining national attention.

The Concert on the Hill series is for the Benzie County community - residents and visitors alike. There is no admission fee. A free-will offering is taken at the intermission. Our thanks to you, our neighbors for supporting our mission projects in our joint community.
